5. PROCEDURE FOR ALLOTMENT OF PLOTS

- 1) There shall be maintained waiting lists of Government servants. The waiting lists shall be maintained on first retire first serve basis and the allotment of plot shall be made strictly in accordance with the order of merit assigned in the waiting list:

Provided that in cases where more than one Government Servants are due to retire on the same day, the Government servants having greater length of service shall be given preference:

Provided further that where two or more Government Servants are of the same length of service, the order of priority shall be determined by draw of plots.

- (2) A Government servant shall ordinarily be allotted a plot in a housing scheme within the limits of the District of his domicile;

Provided that if there be no scheme underway in the District of his domicile, he shall be considered eligible for allotment of the plot in any scheme within the District concerned, or if there be no such scheme in the District as well, then in any housing scheme at the Provincial Headquarters.

6. RECOVERY OF COST

- (1) The cost of the plot paid by the Board shall be recovered from the allottee in equal monthly installments.
- (2) For the purpose of recovery of cost, the maximum number of installments shall not exceed sixty.
- (3) In case of default of payment of the monthly installments by an allottee, the Board shall have the right to recover the same as arrears of land revenue, or cancel the allotment, as it may deem fit.

7. WAIVING OF INSTALLMENT

Where a Government servant dies before full payment of the cost of the plot to the Board, the installments due from him/her after his/her death shall discontinue, the balance outstanding against the deceased Government servant shall be waived off and the plot shall, as soon possible after his/her death, be transferred to his/her legal heir or heirs.

8. CANCELLATION OF ALLOTMENT

- (1) If at any time after allotment of a plot to a Government servant it comes to the knowledge of the Board that he/she was not eligible for allotment of a plot within the meaning of Sub-Rule (2) of Rule 3, the Board shall cancel the allotment and in such an eventuality the amount, if any, deposited by the defaulting allottee towards cost of the plot shall stand forfeited to the Board.

- (2) A Government servant aggrieved under Sub-Rule (1) may, within thirty days of the communication of the order of cancellation, prefer a review petition before the Board and the order passed by the Board on such review petition shall be final:

Provided that the Board shall not pass any order without giving the petitioner an opportunity of being heard.

9. PROPRIETARY RIGHT

On full payment of the rest of the plot to the Board, the Board shall transfer the proprietary rights in respect of the plot to the allottee subject to such conditions as it may impose.

10. BAR ON ALIENATION

A person to whom a plot has been allotted under these rules shall not sublet or alienate by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise the plot or the house constructed thereon or any portion thereof, unless the proprietary rights of the plot have been transferred under Rule 9:

Provided that for the purpose of obtaining loans for the construction or completion of the house on the plot, the allottee may mortgage the plot with a schedule bank or a loan giving agency recognised or sponsored by the Federal or Provincial Government and in such cases the lender shall have first charge on the plot so mortgaged.

11. All applications for allotment of plot under these rules shall be made in Form 'A' and shall be accompanied by an affidavit and a certification in form 'B' and 'C' respectively, annexed to these rules.
