- (c) a declaration that he, his spouse or any of his dependants or a business concern mainly owned by him or the aforesaid, is not in default in payment of government dues or utility charges, including telephone, electricity, gas and water charges of an amount in excess of two thousand rupees, for over six months, at the time of filing of nomination papers; and

- (d) a statement indicating his educational qualification, occupation, National Identity Card number and National Tax number, if any, along with attested copies thereof.

(3) Every nomination for election to seat reserved for women, non-muslim, peasant and worker and youth shall be made by a separate nomination paper in Form-IV, which shall be signed by both the proposer and the seconder and shall, on solemn affirmation made and signed by the candidate accompanied by all the relevant statements and declarations provided in sub-rule (2).

(4) Every nomination of a candidate for becoming a Nazim or Naib Nazim of Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Council shall be made by a separate nomination paper in the prescribed form which shall be signed by both the proposer and the seconder and shall, on solemn affirmation made and signed by the candidate with a declaration that he has consented to the nomination.

(5) Every nomination paper shall be delivered to the Returning Officer by the candidate in person and the Returning Officer shall acknowledge the receipt of the nomination paper specifying the date and time of receipt.

(6) Subject to maximum of five nominations, a person may be nominated in the same electoral ward by more than one nomination paper.

(7) If any person subscribes as a proposer or a seconder to more than one nomination paper, all such nomination papers, except the one received first by the Returning Officer, shall be void.

(8) The Returning Officer shall assign a serial number to every nomination paper and endorse thereon the name of the person presenting it, and the date and time of its receipt, and inform such person of the time and place at which he shall hold scrutiny.

(9) The Returning Officer shall cause to be affixed at some conspicuous place in his office a notice in Form V of every nomination paper received by him containing the particulars of each candidate as shown in the nomination paper for general information;

(10) The nomination form, accompanying declarations, including declaration of assets, and statements shall be open to inspection by public, copies thereof may be made available by the District Returning Officer in such manner and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

15. Nomination Fee.---(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), no nomination paper delivered to the Returning Officer shall be accepted unless a sum of rupees one thousand for election to a seat in the Village Council and Neighbourhood Council, as the case may be, and rupees three thousand for election to a seat in Tehsil Council, Town Council and District Council, as the case may be, is deposited in cash, by the candidate or by any person on his behalf at the time of its delivery or it is accompanied by a bank draft for the sum as aforesaid drawn in favour of the Returning Officer or a receipt showing that a sum as aforesaid has been deposited by the candidate or by any person on his behalf at any branch of the National Bank or at a Government Treasury or Sub-Treasury in Account # “C03-Miscellaneous Receipts, C038-Others, C038700-Others (Election Receipts)” in Form-VI and Form-VII respectively.

(2) Not more than one deposit under sub-rule (1) shall be required in case of a person who has been nominated as a candidate for the same seat by more than one nomination paper.

16. Scrutiny.---(1) The candidates, their election agents, proposers, seconders, one other person authorized by each candidate in this behalf and an elector who has filed an objection to the nomination of a candidate may attend the scrutiny of nomination papers and the Returning Officer shall give all those present reasonable opportunity for examining all nomination papers delivered to him.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the persons attending the scrutiny, examine the nomination papers and decide any objection raised by any such person to any nomination.

(3) The Returning Officer, may, either of his own motion or upon any objection, conduct such summary enquiry as he may think fit and reject a nomination paper if he is satisfied that:-

- (a) the candidate is not qualified to be elected to the seat for which he is contesting election;
- (b) the proposer or the seconder is not qualified to subscribe to the nomination paper;
- (c) any provision of rule 14 or rule 15 has not been complied with; or
- (d) the signature or thumb impression of the proposer or the seconder is not genuine:

Provided that:

- (i) the rejection of a nomination paper shall not invalidate the nomination of a candidate by any other valid nomination paper;
- (ii) the Returning Officer may, for the purpose of scrutiny, require any agency or authority to produce any document or record;
- (iii) the Returning Officer shall not reject a nomination paper on the ground of any defect which is not of a substantial nature and may allow any such defect to be remedied forthwith, including an error in regard to the name, serial number in the electoral roll or other particulars of the candidate or his proposer or seconder so as to bring them in conformity with the corresponding entries in the electoral roll; and

- (iv) the Returning Officer shall not enquire into the correctness of the electoral roll.

(4) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting it and shall, in case of rejection, record brief reasons there-for.

(5) A candidate may prefer an appeal against the decision of the Returning Officer rejecting or, as the case may be, accepting the nomination paper of the candidate to the respective District and Sessions Judge and such appeal shall be summarily decided within such time as may be notified by the Commission and any order passed thereon shall be final.

(6) If, on the basis of any information or material brought to its knowledge by any source, the District Returning Officer is of the opinion that a candidate whose nomination papers have been accepted is a defaulter of loan, taxes, government dues or utility charges or has had any loan written off or suffers from any other disqualification from being elected as a member of the Local Council for which he is contesting election, he may of his own motion, call upon such candidate to show cause why his nomination papers may not be rejected, and if the District Returning Officer is satisfied that the candidate is actually a defaulter as aforesaid or has had a loan written off or suffers from any disqualification, he may reject his nomination papers.

(7) An appeal not disposed of within the specified period shall be deemed to be rejected.

(8) Announcement of the day and time appointed for hearing of the appeal over electronic or print media shall be deemed to be sufficient notice of the day and time so appointed.

17. Publication of list of candidates.---(1) The Returning Officer shall, after the scrutiny of nomination papers, prepare and publish in Form-VIII, a list of validly nominated candidates.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, on the second day following the last date for decision of appeals against acceptance or rejection of nomination papers, prepare and publish the revised list of validly nominated candidates.

(3) A copy of the list of validly nominated candidates, published under sub-rule (1) and (2) shall be furnished, in duplicate, by the Returning Officer to the District Returning Officer, who shall forward a copy to the Provincial Election Commissioner.

18. Withdrawal.---(1) Any validly nominated candidate may, by notice in writing signed by him and delivered on or before the withdrawal date to the Returning Officer, either by the candidate in person or through an agent duly authorized in this behalf in writing by him and attested by an Oath Commissioner or Notary Public appointed under the Notaries Ordinance, 1961 (XIX of 1961), withdraw his candidature.

(2) A notice of withdrawal shall, in no circumstance, be subject to recall or cancellation.

(3) On receiving a notice of withdrawal, the Returning Officer shall, if he is satisfied that the signature on the notice is that of the candidate, cause a copy of the notice to be affixed at some conspicuous place in his office.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, on the day next following the withdrawal day, prepare a list of contesting candidates and publish the same at some conspicuous place in his office:

Provided that against the name of each contesting candidate, symbol allotted to him may be shown.

19. Death of candidate after nomination.---(1) If a contesting candidate dies before the day for taking of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, terminate the proceedings relating to that election.

(2) Where proceedings relating to an election have been terminated, fresh proceedings shall be commenced in accordance with the provisions of these rules as if for a new election:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for the other contesting candidates to file fresh nomination papers.

20. Postponement etc., under certain circumstances.---Where the proceedings relating to nomination, scrutiny or withdrawal cannot, for reasons beyond the control of the Returning Officer, take place on the day appointed there-for, he may postpone or adjourn such proceedings and shall, inform the Commission of his having done so whereupon the Commission shall fix another day for the proceedings so postponed or adjourned and, if necessary, also the day or days for any subsequent proceedings.

21. Uncontested election.---(1) Where, after scrutiny only such number of persons remain as validly nominated candidates as are equal to the number of members to be elected for a Village Council or Neighbourhood Council or where after withdrawal under rule 18, only such number of persons is left as contesting candidates as are equal to the number of members to be elected for a Village Council or Neighbourhood Council, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, declare such candidates to be elected to the concerned Local Council:

Provided that if after scrutiny any candidate indicates that he intends to file an appeal against the rejection of his nomination paper, no person shall be declared elected until the period for filing such appeal has expired and no such appeal has been filed or where an appeal is filed, until the disposal of such appeal.

(2) Where, after scrutiny under rule 16, there remains only one validly nominated candidate or where after withdrawal under rule 18, there remains only one contesting candidate for a seat of Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Council, the Returning Officer shall, by public notice, declare such candidate to be elected to the seat.

Provided that if after scrutiny any candidate indicates that he intends to file an appeal against the rejection of his nomination paper, no person shall be declared elected until the period for filing such appeal has expired and no such appeal has been filed or where an appeal is filed, until the disposal of such appeal.

(3) The Returning Officer, shall submit to the Commission, a return of the election in respect of which he has made a declaration under sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (2) and the Commission, after such inquiry as he may deem necessary in any case, publish in the official Gazette the names of the returned candidates.

22. Contested election and allocation of symbols.---(1) Each contesting candidate to a general seat in Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Council, before seeking the allotment of prescribed symbol, shall file a declaration before the Returning Officer about his party affiliation, if any, along with a certificate from the political party showing that he is party candidate from that ward.

(2) If there are more contesting candidates than the number of seats in respect of any Village Council or Neighbourhood Council, or ward in Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Council, the respective Returning Officer, shall-

- (a) allocate, subject to any direction of the Commission or a District Returning Officer, one of the symbols contained in Schedule-I to each contesting candidate, and in so doing shall, so far as possible have regard for any preference indicated by the candidate;
- (b) publish in such manner as the District Returning Officer may direct the names of contesting candidates arranged in the Urdu alphabetical order specifying against each the symbol allocated to him; and
- (c) give public notice of the poll:

Provided that the Commission may, on an application made to it in this behalf, allot one of the symbols in Schedule-1 to any political party or a combination of political parties who have agreed to put up joint candidates for election to Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Councils in the province;

Provided further that political parties to whom the Commission has allotted election symbols for General Elections to National and Provincial Assemblies shall be allowed to contest election, to Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Councils in the province with the same symbol and shall not be required to seek re-allotment of those symbols and the symbols so allotted to political parties shall not be allotted to candidates contesting election to Village Councils or the Neighbourhood Councils, as the case may be.

(3) The Returning Officer shall arrange to exhibit prominently at each polling station the name and symbol of each contesting candidate.

23. Election agent.---(1) A candidate may appoint a person qualified to be elected as a member, to be his election agent.

(2) The appointment of an election agent may, at any time, be revoked in writing by the candidate and, when it is so revoked or the election agent dies, another person may be appointed by the candidate to be his election agent.

(3) When an election agent is appointed, the candidate shall, send to the Returning Officer a notice in writing of the appointment containing the name, father's name and address of the election agent.

(4) Where no appointment of an election agent is made under this rule, a candidate shall be deemed to be his own election agent and shall so far as the circumstances permit, be subject to the provisions of these rules both as a candidate and an election agent.

24. Polling agent.---(1) The contesting candidate or his election agent, may, before the commencement of the poll, appoint under intimation to the Presiding Officer polling agents for each polling station; provided that the polling agents shall be the electors of area and their number shall not, exceed the number of polling booths.

(2) The appointment of a polling agent may at any time be revoked by the candidate or his election agent and when it is so revoked or the polling agent dies, another person may be appointed by the candidate or the election agent to be a polling agent; and a notice of such appointment shall be given to the Presiding Officer.

25. Absence of candidate not to invalidate acts etc.---Where any act or thing is authorized by these rules to be done in the presence of the candidate, an election agent or a polling agent, the failure of such person to attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not invalidate any act or thing otherwise validly done.

26. One day poll.---Polls for election in the province shall be held on the same day:

Provided that if the Commission is satisfied that polls can not take place in a District Council, Tehsil Council, Town Council, Village Council or Neighbourhood Council on account of a natural calamity or for any other reason beyond its control, the Commission may fix another day for holding the polls in that District.

27. Hours of the poll.---The Commission shall fix the hours, which shall not be less than eight, during which the poll shall be held and the Returning Officer shall give public notice in Form XXX of the hours so fixed and hold the polls accordingly.

28. Stopping of poll.---(1) The Presiding Officer of a polling station shall stop the poll and inform the Returning Officer that he has done so if-

- (a) the poll at the polling station is, at any time so interrupted or obstructed for reasons beyond the control of the Presiding Officer that it cannot be resumed during the polling hours fixed under rule 27; or

- (b) any ballot box used at the polling station is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the Presiding Officer, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with to such an extent that the results of the poll at the polling station cannot be ascertained.

(2) Where a poll has been stopped, the Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the Commission, who shall direct a fresh poll at that polling station and fix a date for such polls, unless he is satisfied that the result of the election has been determined by the polling that has already taken place at that polling station taken with the results of the polling at other polling stations in the same Local Council or, as the case may be, ward.

(3) Where an order under sub-rule (2) has been made, the Commission shall notify the day for a fresh poll and fix the place at which and the hours during which such fresh poll shall be taken.

(4) At a fresh poll taken under sub-rule (3) at a polling station, all electors entitled to vote thereto shall be allowed to vote and no vote cast at the poll stopped under sub-rule (1) shall be counted; and the provisions of the Act and these rules shall apply to such fresh poll.

29. Election by secret ballot.---Save as otherwise provided in the Act, an election under these rules shall be decided by secret ballot and elector shall cast his vote by inserting in accordance with these rules, in the ballot box, a ballot paper (Form X).

30. Ballot boxes.---(1) The Commission shall provide each Returning Officer with such number of ballot boxes as may be necessary.

(2) In the elections, there shall be one or more ballot boxes at each booth as may be determined by the Commission for casting of votes for candidates.

(3) The Returning Officer shall further provide each Presiding Officer with such additional number of ballot boxes as may be necessary.

(4) Not more than one ballot box shall be used at a time for the purpose of the poll at any polling station, or at any polling booth, where there are more than one polling booth at a polling station.

(5) At least half an hour before the time fixed for the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall-

- (a) ensure that every ballot box to be used is empty;
- (b) show the empty ballot box to the contesting candidates and their election agents and polling agents, whoever may be present and record their statements in this behalf and obtain their signatures thereon;
- (c) after the ballot box has been shown to be empty, close and seal it with his own seal and with the seals of such of the candidates, or their election agents or polling agents as may be present and may desire to put their own seals on it; and

- (d) place the ballot box so as to be conveniently accessible to the electors, and at the same time within his view and within the view of such candidates or their election or polling agents as may be present.

(6) If one ballot box is full or cannot further be used for receiving ballot papers, the Presiding Officer shall seal that ballot box and keep it in a secure place and use another ballot box in the manner laid down in sub-rule (5).

(7) A Presiding Officer shall make such arrangements at the polling station that every elector may be able to mark his ballot paper in secret before the same is folded and inserted in the ballot box.

31. Admission to polling station.---The Presiding Officer shall, subject to such instructions as the Commission, Provincial Election Commissioner, District Returning Officer or Returning Officer may give in this behalf, regulate the number of electors to be admitted to the polling station at a time and exclude from the polling station all other persons except-

- (a) any person on duty in connection with the election;
- (b) the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents; and
- (c) such other persons as may be specifically permitted by the Returning Officer.

32. Maintenance of order at the polling station.---(1) The Presiding Officer shall keep order at the polling station and may remove or cause to be removed any person who commits misconduct at the polling station or fails to obey his lawful orders.

(2) Any person removed from a polling station shall not, without the permission of the Presiding Officer, again enter the polling station during the poll and shall if he is accused of an offence in a polling station, be liable to be arrested without warrant by a police officer.

(3) The powers under this rule shall be so exercised not to deprive an elector of an opportunity to cast his vote at the polling station at which he is entitled to vote.

33. Voting procedure.---(1) Where the elector presents himself at the polling station to vote, he shall show his national identity card to the Presiding Officer, who shall after satisfying himself about the identity of the elector, issue him ballot papers:

Provided that the elector will not be issued more than one ballot paper each of the different colour for different categories of candidates to be determined by the Commission (Form X).

- (2) Before a ballot paper is issued to an elector-

- (a) the number and name of the elector as entered in the electoral roll shall be called out;
- (b) a mark shall be placed on the electoral roll against the number and name of the elector to indicate that ballot paper has been issued to him;
- (c) he shall be required to receive a personal mark, made with indelible ink, on any finger of his hand as indicated by the Commission;
- (d) the ballot paper shall on its back be stamped with the official mark and signed by the Presiding Officer; and
- (e) the number of the elector on the electoral roll and the number of his National Identity Card shall be written on the counterfoil by the Presiding Officer who shall also stamp the counterfoil with the official mark, sign it and also obtain the thumb impression of the elector on the counterfoil.

(3) A ballot paper or ballot papers shall not be issued to a person who refuses or is unable to produce original National Identity Card or refuses to comply with the requirements mentioned in sub-rule (2).

(4) If a contesting candidate or his election or polling agent alleges that an elector to whom a ballot paper or ballot papers are about to be issued already has one or more ballot papers in his possession, the Presiding Officer may require the elector to satisfy him that he does not have any other ballot paper in his possession and may also take such measures as he thinks fit to ensure that such elector does not insert more ballot papers than issued to him in the ballot box.

(5) Where an elector is blind or is other-wise so incapacitated that he cannot vote without the assistance of a companion, the Presiding Officer shall allow him to be accompanied by a companion not being a candidate or agent of a candidate and in case the disability is such that elector cannot mark the ballot paper or ballot papers himself, the person accompanying the elector shall mark the ballot paper as indicated by him.

- (6) On receiving the ballot paper or ballot papers, the elector, shall-
 - (a) forthwith proceed to the place reserved for marking the ballot paper;
 - (b) put the marking aid rubber stamp on the ballot paper at place within the space containing the symbol of contesting candidates of his choice; and
 - (c) after he has so marked the ballot paper fold and insert it in the ballot box.

(7) The elector shall vote without undue delay and shall leave the polling station immediately after he has inserted his ballot paper or ballot papers in the ballot box.

34. Tendered ballot paper.---(1) If a person representing himself to be an elector applies for a ballot paper when another person has already represented himself to be that elector and has voted under the name of the person so applying, he shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of this rule to receive a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as "Tendered Ballot Paper") in the same manner as any other elector.

(2) A tendered ballot paper shall, after it has been marked and folded by the elector, be placed in the same condition in separate packet bearing label "Tendered Ballot Paper" instead of being put into the ballot box and shall not be included in the count by the Presiding Officer or the Returning Officer..

(3) The name of the person applying for the ballot paper under sub-rule (1) and his number on the electoral roll shall be entered in the tendered votes list in Form XI, to be prepared by the Presiding Officer.

35. Challenge of electors.---(1) If, at the time a person applies for a ballot paper for the purpose of voting, a candidate or his polling agent declares to the Presiding Officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that, the said person has already voted at the election, at the same or another polling station, or is not the person whose name is entered in the electoral roll against which he is seeking to vote, and undertakes to prove the charge in a court of law and deposits with the Presiding Officer in cash a sum of Rs. 50/- for each such challenge, the Presiding Officer may, after warning the person of the consequences and obtaining his thumb impression and, if he is literate, also his signature on the counterfoil, issue a ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as "Challenged Ballot Paper") to that person.

(2) If the Presiding Officer issues a ballot paper under sub-rule (1) to such person, he shall enter the name and address of that person in a list to be prepared by him in Form XII (hereinafter referred to as the Challenged Votes List), and obtain thereon the thumb impression and, if he is literate, also the signature of that person.

(3) A ballot paper issued under sub-rule (1), shall, after it has been marked and folded by the elector, be placed in the same condition in a separate packet bearing the label "Challenged Ballot Paper", instead of being placed in the ballot box.

36. Spoilt ballot paper.---(1) An elector who has inadvertently so spoilt his ballot paper that it cannot be used as a valid ballot paper may, upon proving the fact of inadvertence to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer and returning the ballot paper to him, obtain another ballot paper and cast his vote by such other ballot paper.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall forthwith cancel the ballot paper returned to him, make a note to that effect on the counterfoil over his own signature and sign the cancelled ballot paper and place it in a separate packet labeled "Spoilt Ballot Papers".

(3) If a ballot paper issued to an elector has not been inserted by him into the ballot box and is found any where in or near the polling station, it shall be cancelled and also accounted for as "spoilt ballot paper".

37. Voting after close of poll.---No person shall be given any ballot paper or be permitted to vote after the hour fixed for the close of the poll, except the persons who at that hour are present within the building, room, tent or enclosure in which the polling station is situated and have not voted but are waiting to vote.

38. Proceedings at the close of the poll.---(1) The Presiding Officer shall count the votes immediately after the close of the poll, in the presence of such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall give such of the contesting candidates, election agents and polling agents as may be present, reasonable facility of observing the count and give them such information with respect thereto as can be given consistent with the orderly conduct of the count and the discharge of his duties in connection therewith.

(3) No person other than the Presiding Officer, Polling Officers and persons on duty in connection with the poll, the contesting candidates, their election agents and polling agents shall be present at the count.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall-

- (a) open the used and sealed ballot box or ballot boxes and count the entire lot of ballot papers taken out therefrom;
- (b) open the packet labeled "Challenged Ballot Paper" and include the ballot papers therein in the count;
- (c) count the votes cast in favour of each contesting candidate excluding from the count the ballot papers which bear-
 - (i) no official mark and signature of the Presiding Officer;
 - (ii) any writing or any mark other than the official mark, the signature of the Presiding Officer and the mark of "marking aid rubber stamp" or to which a piece of paper or any other object of any kind has been attached;
 - (iii) no mark of "marking aid rubber stamp" indicating the contesting candidate for whom the elector has voted; or
 - (iv) any mark from which it is not clear for whom the elector has voted:

Provided that a ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in favour of a candidate if the whole or more than half of the area of the mark of "marking aid rubber stamp" appears clearly within the space containing the symbol of that candidate; and

(v) where the mark of “marking aid rubber stamp” is divided equally between two such spaces, the ballot paper shall be deemed to be invalid.

(5) The Presiding Officer may recount the votes-

(a) of his own motion if he considers it necessary; or

(b) upon the request of a contesting candidate or an election agent present, if, in his opinion, the request is not unreasonable.

(6) The valid ballot papers cast in favour of each contesting candidate shall be put in separate packets and each such packet shall be sealed and shall contain a certificate as to the number, both in letter and figures, of ballot papers put in it and shall also indicate the nature of the contents thereof, specifying the name and symbol of the contesting candidate to whom the packet relates.

(7) The ballot papers excluded from the count shall be put in a separate packet indicating thereon the total number of ballot papers contained therein.

(8) The packets mentioned in sub-rules (6) and (7) shall be put in a principal packet which shall be sealed by the Presiding Officer.

(9) The Presiding Officer shall, immediately after the count, prepare a statement of the count in Form XIII, Form XV, Form XVII, Form XIX, Form XXI, Form XXIII and Form XXV, showing therein the number of valid votes polled in favour of each contesting candidate and the ballot papers excluded from the count.

(10) The Presiding Officer shall also prepare in Form XIV, Form XVI, Form XVIII, Form XX, Form XXII, Form XXIV, Form XXVI and Form XXVIII, a ballot paper account showing separately-

(a) the number of ballot papers entrusted to him;

(b) the number of ballot papers taken out of the ballot box or boxes and counted;

(c) the number of tendered ballot papers;

(d) the number of challenged ballot papers;

(e) the number of spoilt ballot papers; and

(f) the number of un-issued ballot papers.

(11) The Presiding Officer shall give a certified copy of the statement of the count and the ballot paper account to such of the candidates or election agents or polling agents as may be present and obtain a receipt for such copy.

(12) The Presiding Officer shall seal in separate packets-

- (a) the un-issued ballot papers;
- (b) the spoiled ballot papers;
- (c) the tendered ballot papers;
- (d) the challenged ballot papers;
- (e) the marked copies of the electoral rolls;
- (f) the counterfoils of the used ballot papers;
- (g) the tendered votes' list;
- (h) the challenged votes' list; and
- (i) such other papers as the Returning Officer may direct.

(13) The Presiding Officer shall obtain on each statement and packet prepared under this rule the signatures of such of the contesting candidates or their election agents or polling agents as may be present and, if any such person refuses to sign, the Presiding Officer shall record that fact.

(14) After the close of the proceedings, the Presiding Officer shall, in compliance with such instructions as may be given by the Returning Officer in this behalf, cause the packets, the statement of the count and the ballot paper account prepared by him to be sent to the Returning Officer together with such other records as the Returning Officer may direct.

39. Consolidation of result.---(1) The Returning Officer shall, in Form XXVII, consolidate the results of counts furnished by the Presiding Officer.

(2) The Returning Officer shall give the contesting candidates and their election agents a notice in writing of the day, time and place for consolidation of the results.

(3) Before consolidating the results of the count, the Returning Officer shall examine the ballot papers excluded from the count by the Presiding Officer and if he finds that any such ballot paper should not have been so excluded, count it as a ballot paper cast in favour of the contesting candidate for whom the vote has been cast thereby.

(4) The Returning Officer shall include the votes cast in favour of each contesting candidate in the consolidated statement except those which he may reject on any of the grounds mentioned in rule 38.

(5) The ballot papers rejected by the Returning Officer shall be shown separately in the consolidated statement.

(6) The Returning Officer shall not recount the valid ballot papers in respect of any polling station unless -

- (a) the count by the Presiding Officer is challenged in writing by a contesting candidate or his election agent and the Returning Officer is satisfied about the reasonableness of the challenge; or
- (b) he is directed to do so by the Commission or the District Returning Officer.

40. Equality of votes.---(1) Where, after consolidation of the results of the count under rule 39, it is found that there is equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates and the addition of one vote for one such candidate would entitle him to be declared elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith draw a lot by the toss of a coin in respect of such candidates, and the candidate on whom the lot falls shall be deemed to have received the highest number of votes, entitling him to be declared elected.

(2) The lot shall be drawn in the presence of such contesting candidates and their election agents as may be present.

(3) The Returning Officer shall keep a record of the proceedings in writing, and obtain thereon the signatures of such candidates and election agents as have been witnesses to the proceedings, and if any such person refuses to sign, such fact shall be recorded.

41. Declaration of results.---(1) The Returning Officer shall, after consolidation of result, or after the drawl of the lot, declare by public notice, the names of such contesting candidate or candidates in case of multi-member wards as have or are deemed to have received the highest number of votes (Form XXVIII).

(2) The public notice shall contain the name of and the total number of votes received by each contesting candidate.

(3) The Returning Officer shall, immediately after publication of the notice submit to the Commission, a return of the election in prescribed form together with a copy of the consolidated statement.

(4) The District Returning Officer shall send the names of the returned candidates in a council to the Commission which shall be published by it in the Official Gazette.

CHAPTER – V

ELECTION TO RESERVED SEATS

42. Election to reserved seats.---(1) For the purpose of election to seats reserved for women, peasants and workers, non-muslims and youth in the tehsil, town and district councils, the political parties contesting election for such seats shall, within the period fixed by the Commission for submission of nomination papers, file separate lists of their candidates in order of priority for seats reserved for women, peasants and workers, non-muslims and youth with the District Returning Officer, who shall forthwith send such lists to the respective District Returning Officer with direction to publish the lists for information of the public at large.

(2) The political parties' lists referred to in sub-rule (1) may contain as many names of additional candidates as a political party may deem necessary for contesting seats reserved for women, peasants and workers, non-muslims and youth to provide for any disqualification of candidates during scrutiny of nomination papers or for filling of any vacant seat during the term of the respective local council.

(3) Where a seat reserved for women, peasants and workers, non-muslims and youth in a local council falls vacant for death, resignation or disqualification of a member, it shall be filled in by the next person in order of precedence from the political party's list of the candidates submitted to the Provincial Election Commissioner under sub-rule (1).

(4) Every candidate contesting election on a seat reserved for women, peasants and workers, non-muslims and youth shall, alongwith nomination papers and other relevant documents, submit to the Returning Officer appointed by the Commission in this behalf.

- (a) A copy of the party list of the candidate's political party for such seats;
- (b) Declarations and statements as required by the Act or these rules in support of the nomination; and
- (c) The fee required under these rules for filing nomination papers.

CHAPTER – VI ELECTION EXPENSES

43. Restriction on and Return of Election Expenses.---(1) No person other than the candidate shall incur any election expenses of such candidate:

Provided that where any person incurs any election expenses on behalf of such candidate, whether for stationery, postage, advertisements, transport or for any other item whatsoever, such expenses shall be deemed to be the election expenses incurred by the candidate himself.

(2) The election expenses of a contesting candidate shall not exceed, in the case of an election to a seat in the Village Council or Neighbourhood Council, fifty thousand rupees and, in the case of election to a seat in a Tehsil Council, Town Council and District Council, two hundred thousand rupees.

(3) A candidate shall, through bills, receipts and other documents, vouch for every payment made in respect of election expenses, except where the amount is less than five hundred rupees.

(4) Every contesting candidate, including the returned candidate, shall submit the return of his election expenses within ten days of the publication of the name of the returned candidate.

(5) The return of election expenses shall be submitted to the Returning Officer in the prescribed form containing:

- (a) a statement of all payments made by him together with all bills and receipts;
- (b) statements of all disputed claims and all unpaid claims if any; and
- (c) a statement of moneys, securities or equivalent of money received from, or spent, by any person for the benefit of the candidate, specifying the name of every such person.

(6) The returns shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the candidate.

(7) The returns of election expenses shall, during six months from the date of their receipt by the Returning Officer, be open to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee.

CHAPTER – VII ELECTION DISPUTE

44. Election Petition.---(1) No election shall be called in question except by an election petition made by a candidate for that election hereinafter referred to as the petitioner.

(2) An election petition shall be presented to the Tribunal appointed by the Commission within twenty days of the publication in the official Gazette of the name of the returned candidate and shall be accompanied by a receipt showing that the petitioner has deposited in a Scheduled Bank in favour of the Commission, as security for the costs of the petition, a sum of one thousand rupees.

(3) An election petition shall be presented by a petitioner and shall be deemed to have been presented, when it is delivered in person by the petitioner, or by a person authorized in this behalf by him, to the Tribunal.

45. Parties to the petition.---The petitioner shall join all contesting candidates as respondents to his election petition and shall serve personally or by registered post on each respondent a copy of his petition.

46. Contents of petition.---(1) Every election petition shall contain-

- (a) a precise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
- (b) full particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice or other illegal act alleged to have been committed, including as full as possible a statement of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt or illegal practice or illegal act and the date and place of the commission of such practice or act; and

- (c) the relief claimed by the petitioner:

Explanation.---In this rule and in the following provisions of this chapter, “corrupt, illegal practice or illegal act” means a “corrupt practice” or an “illegal practice” or “illegal act” within the meaning of the Act.

- (2) A petitioner may claim as relief any of the following declarations, namely,-

(a) that the election of the returned candidate is void and that the petitioner or some other person has been duly elected, or

(b) that the election as a whole is void.

(3) Every election petition and every annexure to that petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the verification of pleadings.

47. Appointment of Tribunal.---(1) For the trial of election petitions under these rules, the Commission may appoint as many Tribunals as may be necessary.

(2) A Tribunal shall consist of a person who is or has been a District and Sessions Judge or Additional District and Sessions Judge.

48. Place of trial.---The trial of an election petition shall be held at such place or places as the Tribunal may deem fit.

49. Appearance before Tribunal.---Any appearance, application or act before a Tribunal may be made or done by a party in person or through an advocate:

Provided that the Tribunal may, where it considers necessary, direct any party to appear in person.

50. Procedure before Tribunal.---(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, and these rules, every election petition shall be tried, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure for the trial of suits under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908):

Provided that the Tribunal may-

(a) where the election petition claims as relief a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void on the ground that the returned candidate was not, on the nomination day, qualified for, or was disqualified from being elected as a member, decide the question of such qualification or disqualification as preliminary issue;

(b) require the parties to file within fifteen days of the date on which the case is fixed for evidence, a list of witnesses whom they propose to produce to give evidence or to produce documents, mentioning against the name of each witness a brief of the evidence that each witness is expected to give;

- (c) make a memorandum of the substance of the evidence of each witness as his examination proceeds unless it considers that there is a special reason for taking down the evidence of any witness in full;
- (d) refuse to examine a witness if it considers that his evidence is not material or that he has been called on a frivolous or vexatious ground, for the purpose of delaying the proceedings or defeating the ends of justice; and
- (e) refuse to issue any summons for the appearance of any witness unless, within three days following the date on which the parties are called upon to produce their evidence; any party intimates the Tribunal that it desires a witness to be summoned through the Tribunal and the Tribunal is satisfied that it is not possible or practicable for such party to produce the evidence.

(2) The Tribunal may permit the evidence of any witness to be given by means of an affidavit;

(3) Subject to the provisions Act, and these rules, the Qanoon-e-Shahadat Order, 1984, shall apply for the trial of an election petition.

(4) The Tribunal may, at any time, upon such terms and on payment of such costs as it may direct, allow a petition to be amended in such a manner as may, in its opinion, be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial and for determining the real questions in controversy, but no new ground of challenge to the election is permitted to be raised.

51. Dismissal of petition during trial.---The Tribunal may dismiss an election petition if -

- (a) the provisions of rules 45 and 46 have not been complied with; or
- (b) the allegations contained therein are vague or do not disclose the commission of any corrupt practice, material irregularity, or other illegal act.

52. Power of Tribunal.---The Tribunal shall have all the powers of civil court trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) and shall be deemed to be civil court within the meaning of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

53. Recrimination where seat is claimed.---(1) Where in an election petition a declaration is claimed that a candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected, the returned candidate or any other party may produce evidence to prove that the election of such other candidate would have been declared void had he been the returned candidate and had a petition been presented calling his election in question:

Provided that returned candidate or such other party as aforesaid shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he or it has within fourteen days next following the commencement of the trial, given notice to the Tribunal of his intention so to do.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be accompanied by statement of the case, and all the provisions relating to the contents, verification, trial, procedure of an election petition or to the security deposit in respect of an election petition shall apply to such a statement as if it were an election petition.

54. Decision of the Tribunal.---The Tribunal may upon the conclusion of the proceedings of an election petition make an order-

- (a) dismissing the petition;
- (b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void;
- (c) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other contesting candidate to have been duly elected; or
- (d) declaring the election as a whole to be void.

55. Grounds of declaring election of returned candidate void.---(1) The Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void if it is satisfied that-

- (a) the nomination of the returned candidate was invalid; or
- (b) the returned candidate was not, on the nomination day, qualified for, or was disqualified from, being elected as a member; or
- (c) the election of the returned candidate has been procured or induced by any corrupt or illegal practice; or
- (d) a corrupt or illegal practice has been committed by the returned candidate or his election agent or by any other person with the connivance of the candidate or his authorized agent.

(2) The election of a returned candidate shall not be declared void on the ground-

- (a) that any corrupt or illegal practice has been committed, if the Tribunal is satisfied that it was not committed by or with the consent or connivance of that candidate or his election agent and that the candidate and the election agent took all reasonable precautions to prevent its commission; or
- (b) that any of the other contesting candidates was, on the nomination day, not qualified for or was disqualified from, being elected as a member.

56. Ground for declaring a person other than a returned candidate elected.---

The Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected, if it is so claimed by the petitioner or any of the respondents and the Tribunal is satisfied that the petitioner or such other contesting candidate was entitled to be declared elected.

57. Ground for declaring election as a whole void.---(1) The Tribunal shall declare the election as a whole to be void if it is satisfied that the result of the election has been materially affected by reason of-

- (a) the failure of any person to comply with the provisions of the Act or these rules; or
- (b) the prevalence of extensive corrupt or illegal practice at the election.

(2) An order of the Tribunal under this rule shall take effect on the date on which it is made and shall be communicated to the Commission and the government.

58. Decision in case of equality of votes.---(1) Where, after the conclusion of the trial, it appears that there is an equality of votes between two or more contesting candidates and the addition of one vote for one such candidate would entitle him to be declared elected, the Tribunal shall draw a lot in respect of such candidates and the candidate on whom the lot falls shall be deemed to have received the highest number of votes entitling him to be declared elected.

(2) Before proceeding to draw a lot, the Tribunal shall give notice to the contesting candidates between whom there is an equality of votes and shall proceed to draw a lot on the day and the time and place stated in the notice:

Provided that, if the contesting candidates are present when it appears that there is an equality of votes between them, the Tribunal may proceed forthwith to draw a lot without giving notice as aforesaid.

59. Abatement on death of petitioner.---An election petition shall abate on the death of a sole petitioner or of the sole survivor of several petitioners.

60. Death or withdrawal of respondent.---If, before the trial of an election petition, a respondent dies or gives notice in writing that he does not intend to contest the petition, and no respondent remains to contest the petition, the Tribunal shall without any further hearing or after giving such person as it may think fit an opportunity of being heard, decide the case ex-parte.

61. Failure of petitioner to appear.---Where, at any stage of the trial of an election petition, no petitioner makes an appearance, the Tribunal may dismiss the petition in default and make such order as to costs as it may think fit.

62. Order as to costs.---(1) The Tribunal shall, when making an order under rule 57 also make an order determining in its discretion the costs and specifying the persons by and to whom such costs are to be paid.

(2) If, in any order as to costs under sub-rule (1), there is a direction for the payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not already been paid, be payable in full and shall, upon application in writing in that behalf made to the Tribunal within sixty days of the order by the person to whom costs have been awarded, be paid, as far as possible, out of the security for costs deposited by such party.

(3) Any order for costs may be enforced upon an application in writing made to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction of the district in which the person from whom the costs are to be recovered resides or owns property, or of the district in which the electoral ward, to which the disputed election relates is situate, as if such order were a decree passed by that Court:

Provided that no proceeding shall be brought except in respect of costs which have not been recovered by an application under sub-rule (2).

63. Withdrawal of petition.---(1) An election petition may be withdrawn by leave of the Tribunal.

(2) Where leave is granted by the Tribunal, the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs incurred by respondents to the election petition or such portion thereof as the Tribunal may direct.

64. Supply of copies of decision on petition.---(1) Copies of any interim or final orders passed by the Tribunal on any election petition may be furnished to the parties to the petition by the Tribunal on application in writing.

(2) The fee for supply of copies shall be ten rupees for each page and every application for the supply of copies shall be accompanied by court fee stamps of the requisite value.

65. Retention of the record.---The Tribunal shall, after an election petition has been disposed of, forward the record thereof to the Provincial Election Commissioner who shall retain such record for a period of three years from the date of its receipt and shall thereafter cause it to be destroyed.

CHAPTER – VIII ELECTION OF NAZIM IN TEHSIL/ TOWN OR DISTRICT COUNCIL

66. Election of Nazim.---The District Returning Officer will nominate Returning Officers to convene and preside over the first meeting of Tehsil Council, Town Council or, as the case may be, District Council to elect Nazim from amongst members of the respective Local Councils.

67. Election to be without debate.---(1) In the first meeting of Tehsil Council, Town Council or District Council following an election or whenever office of the Nazim falls vacant for any reason, the Local Council shall not transact any business unless it has been ascertained which one of the members of the Local Council commands the confidence of the majority of the members of the Local Council.

(2) In the first meeting summoned for the purpose of election of Nazim, the Local Council, to the exclusion of any other business and without debate, shall proceed as follows:

- (a) Any member may propose or second the name of any member who, in his opinion, commands the confidence of the majority of the members of the council, hereinafter referred to as the candidate;
- (b) Every proposal shall be made by a separate nomination paper in Form XXXI and shall be signed by the proposer and seconder and also by the candidate stating that he has consented to the nomination;
- (c) A candidate may be proposed by more than one nomination papers but no member shall subscribe to more than one nomination paper either as proposer or as seconder.
- (d) Every nomination paper shall be delivered by the candidate or his proposer or seconder to the secretary of the Local Council by 1300 hours, on the day fixed for the ascertainment.

68. Scrutiny.---(1) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their proposers or seconders who may wish to be present, scrutinize the nomination papers and may reject a nomination paper, if he is satisfied that:

- (a) the candidate is not a member of the Local Council;
- (b) any provision of the rule 67 has not been complied with; or
- (c) the signature of the proposer, the seconder or the candidate is not genuine:

Provided that the rejection of a nomination paper shall not invalidate the nomination in respect of a candidate by any other valid nomination paper; and

Provided further that a nomination form shall not be rejected on the ground of any defect which is not of substantial nature and such defect may be allowed to be remedied forthwith.

(2) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination form his decision accepting or rejecting it and shall, in case of rejection, record briefly the reasons thereof.

(3) The decision of the Returning Officer accepting or rejecting a nomination paper shall be final.

69. Withdrawal.---A candidate may withdraw his candidature at any time before the election takes place.

70. Election of Nazim.---(1) Before commencement of the proceedings of election Returning Officer shall read out to the Local Councils the names of the candidates validly proposed for the elections who have not withdrawn, hereinafter called the contesting candidates, in the order in which their nomination papers were received and proceed to effect the election by an open division.

(2) If there is only one contesting candidate and he secures the support of the majority of the members of the Local Council, the Returning Officer shall declare him to be the member commanding the confidence of the majority of the members of the Local Council.

(3) If there is only one contesting candidate and he is not able to secure the support of the majority of the members of the Local Council, all proceedings shall commence afresh for the election.

(4) If there are two or more contesting candidates, the candidate who secures the support of the majority of the members of the Local Council shall be declared to be the member commanding the confidence of the majority of the members of the Local Council.

(5) If no contesting candidate secures such majority in the first round, a second round shall be held between the candidates who are supported by the two highest numbers of members in the first round and the candidate who is supported by majority of the members of the Local Council shall be declared to be commanding the confidence of the majority of the members of the Local Council:

Provided that, if two or more candidates are supported by an equal number of members, further round shall be held between them until one of them secures support of the majority of the members, of the Local Council.
